

Exterior View

Aerial Photograph

We started with a master plan for this growing church east of Silverdale, Washington and then designed a 400-seat multi-purpose sanctuary / fellowship addition.

Interestingly, at one [point in the design process, the site access changed and we literally had to mirror the entire building, which was easily accomplished with the AutoCAD based drawings we were working with.