

This clients sanctuary and narthex were dark and dreary. They needed more flexibility and a sense of the community meeting to worship. We designed renovations which included opening up the wall between the narthex and sanctuary, increasing a window wall for more light, canting the pews, using movable chairs at the front, and modifying the platform. This included making the platform handicap accessible.

