

Exterior Rendering

Bird's Eye View

This owner wanted to use a thin shell concrete dome building system to construct their new 3,000 seat worship building and gym/fellowship hall. This unique structural system uses an inflated membrane form with a sprayed on insulation under the membrane, and a sprayed on 8" thick concrete shell under that.

Our firm also developed the master plan for this church and school campus.

Master Site Plan

Sanctuary Interior

