

Sanctuary Interior

Stained Glass In Sanctuary

Exterior

This 275-seat sanctuary was added to the existing church building in Kenmore, Washington. It is a delightful, light-filled space, that uses a variety of window systems.

The addition is connected to an existing multi-purpose space, which was renovated to function as a narthex, overflow space, classrooms, fireside room, and a fellowship hall.

